ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On August 23, 2007, Con-way Inc. (the "Company") entered into a Bridge Credit Agreement (the "Credit Agreement") with Goldman Sachs Credit Partners, L.P., which established a bridge loan facility of up to $500 million. In addition, on August 23, 2007, the Company borrowed $425 million under the Credit Agreement to fund a portion of the purchase price in its acquisition of Transportation Resources, Inc. and subsidiaries, including Contract Freighters, Inc., which closed on that date. No further borrowings are permitted under the terms of the Credit Agreement.

The principal amount of $425 million is due in full on August 21, 2008. Mandatory prepayments of principal are also required in certain circumstances, including certain issuances of debt securities or equity securities resulting in net cash proceeds of $75 million or more. Loans under the Credit Agreement bear interest at a rate based upon a base rate or eurodollar rate plus a margin dependent upon either the Company's senior debt credit ratings or a ratio of "net debt" (i.e., indebtedness net of cash, cash equivalents and certain marketable securities) to earnings before interest, taxes and depreciation/amortization. The range of the margin is from 0.300% to 0.875%. Loans outstanding under the Credit Agreement currently bear interest at 5.905%, based on a one-month eurodollar rate of 5.505% and an applicable margin of 0.400%.

The Company's obligations under the Credit Agreement are guaranteed by certain of Con-way's material domestic subsidiaries. The Credit Agreement contains two financial covenants (a leverage ratio and a fixed-charge coverage ratio) and also various restrictive covenants, including limitations on (1) the incurrence of liens, (2) consolidations, mergers and asset sales and (3) the incurrence of additional subsidiary indebtedness.
