

YOUR ONE-STOP SHOP FOR COMPLETE TRUCKLOAD SHIPPING REQUIREMENTS — CON-WAY TRUCKLOAD REGIONAL SERVICE

Con-way Truckload Regional provides regional service for short-haul truckload shipments within 600 miles, including cartage service for truckload shipments less than 100 miles. The company also plans to offer drayage services as part of Con-way Truckload Regional.

Con-way Truckload Regional offers you the best of both worlds: the capacity, flexibility and industry-leading transportation expertise of Con-way Truckload together with the optimized network of Con-way Freight.

With over 50 years of transportation expertise, Con-way Truckload is able to provide professional, flexible and on-time service for regional shipments by being able to access a select group of Con-way Freight's optimized network of more than 300 North American facilities. Having access to a part of its sister company's freight network enables Con-way Truckload Regional to quickly respond to changing conditions and surges in demand. Additionally, Con-way Truckload's more than 2,600-truck fleet is available when needed to support regional service via dispatch through the company's centralized operation in Joplin, Mo.

WITH CON-WAY TRUCKLOAD REGIONAL YOU'LL GET:

- Service-oriented, centralized dispatch plus the ability to tap into the company's long-haul fleet when needed
- Reliable on-time performance of 98 percent to help shippers meet time-sensitive delivery needs
- Industry-leading capacity with access to a select group of Con-way Freight facilities across the country and some of the nation's safest, most experienced drivers
- Ability to meet diverse shipping requirements with the widest portfolio of customized solutions for shippers, including long-haul, consolidation and distribution and short-haul offerings
- Professionalism of an established carrier with more than 50 years of transportation experience
- Flexibility and resources of a dedicated regional fleet to meet the needs of customers, especially those with seasonal surges

Con-way Truckload Regional offers expanded, customized solutions for shippers with diverse truckload shipping requirements, and the ability to scale those services according to business needs.

Con-way Truckload delivers the most comprehensive service menu in the truckload industry — from dry van to specialized equipment, we do it all.
